A BRUTAL MURDER.

Jennie Love Killed in a Quarrel Over a Few Dollars.

THE MURDERER ARRESTED AND COMMITTED TO JAIL WITHOUT RAIL.

State of a Dinner-Pail Thief—Sold Boy Robbed—Overrun by Thieves—Narrow Escape From Lynchings—Held Up in a Sleeper—A Poisoned Well—Criminal Calendar.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 1.—L. D. Slaughter, colored, brutally murdered Jennie Love this afternoon about 2 o'clock. The woman was a bright, intelligent colored woman who had been living with Slaughter about six months. Last night the couple had a quarrel over a few dollars in silver which the woman refused to give to her lover. Slaughter gave her an unmerciful beating and then returned to the house. This afternoon he returned with a Winchester and fired two shots at her, one penetrating the abdomen which caused her death. After firing the two shots Slaughter leaned over the prostrate form of the woman and exclaimed:

"You're killed me Lou, I'm dead, don't shoot any more."

Slaughter threw the Winchester over his shoulder, lit a cigar and walked out of the house, and in a few minutes afterwards was arrested by the police and committed to jail without bail.

BOY ROBBERIES.

THE DARING DEED OF A 13-YEAR-OLD LAD.

DEVIL, Colo., Aug. 1.—Otto Schoendauer, alias Lewis Rost, Frank Young alias Chas. R. Stuart and Fred Roberts alias Fred J. Hansen, three Akron (O.) boys, each 13 years of age, were arrested in this city last evening on a charge of having robbed the Werner Printing Co. of Akron, Ohio, of $2,000 last Saturday morning. The robbery was committed in broad daylight in the business part of the city and was considered one of the boldest and best planned robberies that ever took place in any country. Otto Schoendauer was a trusted employee of the printing establishment. Quite a sum of money was taken to the office last Saturday morning to pay of the employees that evening. Part of the hands had been paid and about $2,000 yet remained in the office. Young Schoendauer came in from an adjoining room and found the cashier he was wanted at the telephone. When the cashier stepped to the phone Schoendauer grabbed the money, and putting it into a valise near at hand, darted out of the door just as a carriage driven by the other two boys came up, and entering the carriage, they fled. The boys were of good family and born and raised in Akron. Of the money taken $1,477.75 was retained by the boys, the balance of $1,522.25 they only got $1,500 instead of $2,000 as the telegram states.

THE ARRESTING CARRIER OF THE NEWPORT NEWS PROBABLY IN MEXICO.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 1.—While experts were busy on the morning of August 1st, the Newport News Railroad office here to day, Gen. John Echols sat by and told news paper reporters he hoped the safe would contain money and an explanation of the disappearance. He could not believe Young to be a defaulter. It was this same feeling, he said, which had led him to believe that the safe was empty. He had discovered the discrepancy, to send Young work making an engagement at a late hour instead of going to his office and having been arrested. He had been arrested and opened there was nothing except the usual small amount of money carried and some letters. ing out of the Potawatomie into the Chicago country, and rounded them in a negro cabin about 10 o'clock in the morning and demanded their money, which the outlaws declined to do. While the officers were preparing to burn the house the outlaws were opened and the outlaws were returned with such effect that the outlaws were rendered. The leader proved to be one Frank Cohen, who escaped from the Arkansas penitentiary several years ago. Cohen told his captors that he had not attempted to escape that night as he was in a house in Toledo. He was taken to Oklahoma and put in a cage. Cohen was a member of the noted Dyer gang that has been a border terror for years.

It has also called fresh attention to the disgraceful state of things existing here, at Canton and at other neighboring points. It is stated by attorneys that the list of people who have come here within the past six months for the sole purpose of securing divorces number 100. A large number of these have secured their divorces. Many cases are now pending and a very large proportion are here living the life of a married couple. ## CURES

Of Epilepsy, Palpitation of the Heart, General Weakness, Etc.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 1, 1891.

The wonderful results of Mrs. Sabine's Spiritual Treatment of my case induce me to publicly state the following details: For a long time my son had suffered with epileptic fits and all remedies applied proved of no avail.

I too, was made miserable by a general weakness combined with palpitation of the heart and nervous troubles, which totally disabled me and was unable to attend to my work. Therefore I concluded, in January, 1891, to consult Mrs. Sabine. Her treatment was followed with the best of results. Since the day of my visit to her office my son has been entirely cured.

FREE OF THOSE EPILEPTIC ATTACKS.

My condition also improved gradually and I will cheerfully answer all inquiries concerning my said case.

GEORGE FISCHER, Union and Bailey ays. (St. Louis County.) P. O. address, care of Padbury & Bro., 220 South Broadway, City.

to break a captain's spirit and lower him to the eyes of the players. There are those who within wheels in the Brooklyn club, and the true story of its poor showing must be printed before the end of the season. The New York team—not the club—is also handicapped to a certain extent by one or two men who have never thrown a ball. It is all well enough for them so that they can attend to their own affairs without public interference. So could late W. H. Vanderbilt. Nevertheless, he will have opinions and express opinions as long as they can wag a tongue. Settling of Lewis was a scheme that was solved upon by one man in directory almost at the beginning of the season. As yet, Tim had no offers from League clubs. It is because he is a back number, for he pitch now just as well as he ever could. Will it be recollected that A. G. Spalding wielded powerful influence over almost every League club in the circuit the reason is manifestly apparent.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 1.—It is given out tonight that Buffalo is to go into the Amateur Association on Aug. 14, to be followed shortly by Rochester. Of course, this means a general strike by the local team and then a pretty tottering ever since Syracuse was asserted by its backer. Manager Barnie was sent this week and arranged the terms said factually with the local team and then retained President Kramer's consent to transfer. This, it is said, arrived to-day.

Midsummer Night Festival to Be Given at Bodeman's Grove.

While an entertainment by Nest No. 1 of the St. Louis Flock of Owls is not a thing, yet no well-posted St. Louis citizen ever declined an invitation one, nor did the most frequent guest ever see the same entertainment twice. It is against the organic law of the Owls to plagiarize or repeat when it comes to entertaining. The Midsummer Night's Festival, for which Bodeman's Grove at Grand avenue and Second street will be exclusively reserved next Thursday evening. It will feature the best of the city's musical illumination, classic music and high grade histrionic ability can make it. A stage performance will begin at 8 o'clock, with M. O. Sargent, a finished soprano, singing the melody of "The Swan Song." Prof. E. C. McDowell and the far-famed Teale Quartette as principal entertainers. The program will include a recitation by members of the First Regiment, the laurel-crowned Branch Guards, and dancing beneath a grand pavilion to such melody as Vogel's full orchestra can evoke.

Mandamus Proceedings Fall Through

Judge L. B. Valliant yesterday carried out the intention he had expressed before opening his court by adjourning for the term, much to the chagrin of State's Attorney J. Harvey, who up to the last minute thought he would be able to prevail upon Judge to hold open the court to hear the pending mandamus proceedings. The pool-rooms closed in three weeks if we carry through the mandamus proceedings. We depend now entirely upon the writ of error, and we can have the hearing on that question as late as the question decided October 7.

A Harrow Race.

Yesterday afternoon a horse attached to a buggy and driven by Mr. L. M. Sleeper, riding at Eighth and Carr streets, took trip at a passing wagonload of hay. The horse broke-neck speed down Sixth street and the corner of Middle street the wheels of the wagon struck the horse's legs. The driver and sleeper was thrown to the street with considerable force, but escaped with only few bruises. The vehicle struck a brewer's wagon at Ninth and Carr streets and was torn to splinters, entailing a loss of $100 to Mr. Sleeper.

The Illinois Central Railroad tracks were washed out and trains had to lay over several hours last night. Entire loads of corn at various places were lost and covered with mud. The river has now reached its highest point in history.
